Sen. Cropsey welcomes Maple Rapids pastor to Senate session

LANSING – State Senator Alan Cropsey, R-DeWitt, welcomed Pastor Steven Lang of Hope Bible Baptist Church in Maple Rapids to the Michigan Capitol today. Pastor Lang gave the invocation to start the Senate's session.

"I have always valued the important role that pastors and priests play in the life of families and our communities, and I am privileged to have had Pastor Lang open our Senate session with prayer," said Sen. Cropsey.
